Christmas Lights Contest

If you have not had the opportunity to visit the streets in our neighborhood to view your neighbors' Christmas holiday lights, please do it now. The lighting is festive and extensive. Displays were evaluated by a panel of unbiased judges who used number of lights, consistent theme, and unique features. It was a lengthy and difficult task.

Congratulations to all who have enjoyed sharing their decorated homes.

Times like this bring us together as a close-knit community. Now, here are the results.
